Sewanee Summer Music Festival 2022
Digital Media Manager

Appointment:
June 13 - July 21, 2022
Successful candidates will need to arrive in Sewanee no later than June 13th, 2022, and be available for online training sessions (aprx 4 hours) starting June 1st. Training sessions will be compensated at your regular hourly rate.

Reports to:
Bruce Mangan, Production Manager

Job description and responsibilities:
The digital media manager for the SSMF will oversee the creation and management of all video and audio content for the 2022 festival including

- The production and management of live streaming for all ticketed concerts (aprx 38 performances in 4 weeks)
- Management and oversight of recording for non-ticketed participant events (aprx 20 events)
- Creating marketing videos with guest conductors and faculty artists
- Recording and uploading of podcast episodes
- Producing video for future use in marketing and recruiting
- Curating the festival youtube channel

Aspects of this position will work closely with the festival marketing team as well as production.

Desired skills
- Fluent in the latest video and audio recording technology
- The ability to manage multiple projects and work in a fast-paced environment
- The ability to coordinate a team of student workers
- A background in classical music
- An understanding of production and lighting as it relates to creating quality video content
- A BM/BA (completed or in progress) in music production, digital media or similar field

Compensation
$12.50-15.00 an hour, plus on-campus housing and meals

Other Information
- Successful applicants will have to pass a background check and drug test for employment
- This is a full-time staff position requiring evening and weekend hours for appx 4 weeks
- This position will require heavy lifting, many hours on your feet, and the ability to move heavy objects

To apply please visit the employment page at ssmf.sewanee.edu
About the Sewanee Music Center
Now in our 65th season, the Sewanee Music Center has evolved under the Direction of John Kilkenny to become one of the most important cultural landmarks in the southeast region. Boasting two full orchestras, an extensive chamber music program, the Jacqueline Avent Concerto Competition, and our newly created OperaFest, The Sewanee Music Center is truly an internationally recognized classical music training center. Sewanee is distinguished by its world-class faculty, dynamic guest conductors, exciting repertoire, and amazing performance opportunities. Our host institution, the University of the South, sits high atop the Cumberland plateau and boasts 13,000 acres of hiking, biking, and nature trails.